

Captaine Greg Wants YOU For the Cardiff Rose Swordsmen Guild!

Led by Captaine Gregory Haakonsen, we are a company of English Civilian Militia from various nationalities and backgrounds, representing the Crown's armed presence in South-western Wales. We meet in Cardiff's Artillery Garden for training with Sword, Musket, Pike and Cannon -- and of course Libations and Games of Chance. Accompanied by our Baggage Trayne of Suttlers, Cooks, Wagoneers and Wives, we travel to supress unrest wherever our Monarch commands.

Come join us at many of the Renaissance and Celtic Faires in Northern California! We are recruiting not only for Swordsmen, Musketeers, Pikemen and Artillerymen -- but also for camp cooks, craftsmen, chirgeons, wagoneers and wenches. Known for having far too much fun at the old Northern Faire as the Cardiff Rose Fencing booth, we continue the tradition as an English military Guild at the smaller faires.

Check the www.cardiffrose.com website for Guild events, photos, membership forms, and costume hints. We hold Forging Parties nearly every month for making weapons & armor, and having a lot of fun. Contact the Captaine at 925 370-2042, crcaptaine@yahoo.com.
